Path Tutorial - Module 6: Meet Mr. Scholarly & Mr. Popular Script

Learning Outcomes

Students will determine if an article is scholarly or popular.

Students will choose an article of the appropriate type based on their information need.

Video Script: Two English TAs (William Dodson and Matt Mullins) as Mr. Scholarly and Mr. Popular

W: Hi, I’m a scholarly journal.

M: And I’m a magazine.

W: A professor wrote me.

M: And I was written by a journalist. I tell you about current events.

W: And I tell you about original research in a field.

M: I’m short and to the point.

W: And I can be quite lengthy. I don’t have a lot of illustrations.

M: And I am usually quite colorful.

W: I’ve been peer-reviewed by an expert.

M: And I haven’t.

W: Sometimes your professor will tell you that you have to use me.

M: And sometimes your research will be more focused on current events and analysis.

W: You can find me by searching the Libraries’ databases

M: Hey! Me too!